

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to strong arm their stations to air an anti-Kerry attack ad masquerading as a documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. This is an abuse of the public airwaves that should prompt an investigation by the Federal Communications Commission.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.